

Perpetual War State America Adheres to Violent Doctrine for World Hegemony

A State that publishes its doctrine -- Pax Americana, perpetual war -- for the WORLD to see should not surprise anyone when it breaks and undermines peace deals and withdraws from summits designed to pursue reconciliation and constructive realistic negotiations to achieve peace. Clearly, the USA has no intention of brokering or negotiating for peace anywhere on the planet -- that simple -- simply because it believes it can bully and bribe the world into submission with WAR and paper money. Now consider the legality of that approach and the many ILLEGAL wars the US wages and supports via its paid proxy fighters. Syria is the current outrageous example, the US military occupation of Syria breaks numerous international laws and breaches many international conventions to which the US is a signatory.

In view of these realities and the fact that no powers, including cowardly Russia and China, are willing to hold the USA accountable in international courts and other jurisdictions, it is little wonder that much of the world today is in bloody chaos.

America's current buffoon president is now completely controlled by neocon war hawks, the three most obvious are Bolton, Pompeo and Pence. With these three characters in any administration PEACE becomes an IMPOSSIBILITY, obvious. So who is surprised by Trump's letter to Kim Jong Un, or the absurd, one-sided demands made by the US and the OPEN declaration that Kim would be subject to a "Libya solution," which is bombing targeted nations to oblivion and assassinating their leaders and those that support them?

Simply look at America's handiwork in Iraq, Libya and Syria and you can't mistake the painful reality. And when a State rejects Washington's dictates, as did Pakistan some time back, the US threatens to "bomb it back to the stone age" if it doesn't comply, not forgetting a past threat made at the UN by Bolton, who screamed at an international opponent, 'we know where you and your children live' -- gangsterism pure and simple.

And the world expects peace from the likes of gangsters, mass murderers and psychopathic criminals, which no other, or group of nations, has the guts to condemn or oppose; yes Xi and Putin, I am referring to you.

Well, it's OUR world though you wouldn't know it, as it has been gifted to an overtly criminal elite class of psychopaths that flout ALL LAWS with impunity -- it's time to kiss civilisation goodbye.

So, given the prevailing REALITY, what do YOU suppose the future has in store?
