

Non-Stop Propaganda is Real Fake News

Indeed, and who or what disseminates non-stop propaganda? Yes, the elite owned mass media by a country mile; remember the blatant LIES of the Iraq war? Non-existent WMD, fake connection to 9/11 and Iraqis welcoming invading Americans with "bouquets of flowers," etc. In fact the lies, distortions, misinformation that spews daily from the mass media dwarfs all other sources put together. However, what do we witness today? Big IT, Twitter in this instance, suspending over 70 million accounts in 2 months. Now that figure is staggering for a number of reasons, first the labour involved in the cancellation process itself, if it is done diligently, and second, the process itself; if the task has been performed by algorithms, then it's a fraud as clearly a thinking sentient being is required to judge whether content is fake or not, mathematics cannot and does not think nor is it able to JUDGE!

So clearly, following on the heels of Facebook and Google (CIA supported IT companies) Twitter now joins the ranks of the world's largest CENSORSHIP organisations, which indicates the extent to which elites fear the Truth.

Alternative news sites that report verifiable facts have been decimated in readership numbers because the above mentioned companies are doing everything possible to background and eliminate these sites from public view, sure if you type the URL into Google search the site would appear but the posts and articles are backgrounded in favour of pro-government codswallop and flagrant propaganda.

Today effort is required to locate REAL, verifiable and accurate news but the censors know the majority defers to spoon-feeding or what is dis-affectionately known as the mass media 'drip feed.' Which of course promotes the false discourse/agendas of elites and their puppet governments.

Would the situation change for the better in the future or become worse? A rhetorical question as the answer is obvious due to the fact that the majority prefer comfortable, warm, fuzzy LIES rather than the COLD, HARD, TRUTH, notwithstanding the majority have already been socially engineered into slaves that compete for the crumbs that fall from the table of the thieving, mega-wealthy, mass murdering elites.

Now, this article is sure to be backgrounded, in fact it's an experiment. If you disbelieve link it on Twitter, Facebook and other social sites then try to locate it on Google -- not a hope. Also try any article posted to this site that YOU know to be true, and you would be in for a shocking surprise regarding the extent of CENSORSHIP in the West TODAY!

Now to the MOST damning issue. Trump is a known pathological LIAR and uses Twitter to disseminate his (exposed) LIES -- has his account been suspended as it should, not on your life, but why? Simply because he is a captured SERVANT of the elite and serves THEIR interests -- so there you have it, in the face.

Nevertheless, never forget these companies only survive if we choose to use them, that is their Achilles heel, so what would YOU ..?
