

Trump the genius president for the Elites -- Take a closer View

Blithering idiot Trump is the perfect compliant president for corporations, banks and the Deep State. Consider 'his' tax policy, 'his' immigration policy, the HUGE amount of taxpayer dollars (almost a trillion) funneled into the military (weapons manufacturers that produce lemons), his environmental policies, the latest is reversing bans on bee-killing pesticides and GMOs, etc. Without much effort it becomes CLEAR as crystal that he pointedly serves the large petro-chemical/oil/gas extraction corporations, military contractors and other Big business interests. His illegal attacks on Syria, slavish relationship with Israel and proposed attacks on Iran (all neocon policies) are clearly not Trump. And who are these interests in control if not the ruling elite milieu, shadow government or deep state?

Now NOTE, as this is critical, while Trump toes every line and dictate of elite rulers he SIMULTANEOUSLY distracts from these obvious external policies with his media grabbing imbecilic behaviour/remarks, in that sense he is not acting, Trump's ability to DISTRACT, knowingly or otherwise, shifts focus away from 'his' externally designed and ordered policies. An idiot and buffoon to the extent he actually is, ensures media addiction, and that by consequence backgrounds what would otherwise be public OUTRAGE over his minority elite serving policies. Very nice trick indeed, and it's no accident, as it became clear very early in his presidency that vacuum-head Trump was and remains captured by the American ruling elites. The policies on Israel and Iran, for instance, are pure Washington neocon.

As proof and a measure of his lack of political knowledge, Trump squealed 'bad deal' over unwanted immigrant swaps with Australia, totally unaware that Oz hosts one of the most important US spying installations in the world, and that combined with traitorous Oz PM Julia Gillard's signing over every airfield, sea port and other infrastructure to be utilised ("Asia pivot") whenever AMERICAN colonial occupiers see fit, which consequence (UNPRECEDENTED) has NOW made Australia a primary nuclear target in the event of an American provoked war with China, Australia's most important trading partner.

'Bad deal' ay, you obvious political moron. For mine a hint at Oz taking control of Australia's foreign installations would have sent Washington reeling, but as it turned out Trump had to be educated about Australia's slavish role in America's empire building and maintenance. Trump hasn't the brain of a flea but where he excels is media capture, every time I check the American ALTERNATIVE media it's 95% Trump coverage and the mass media teeters on 100%. Which is PERFECT for interests that do not wish to have the light of day shone on their nefarious, self-serving policies.

Now, would it not be more Productive, you nose-ringed, yankee doodle dreamboats in the American media, to see and cover what is really going on behind the charade and distractions, which in brief is the sell-out of the American people and nation to the interests of a CRIMINAL, war-addicted, minority elite? Fair dinkum, it is a given that the people that support Trump have a similar mental capacity to their 'leader' BUT when alternative sources have also CLEARLY fallen for the elite designed distractions and camouflage trick, hope diminishes by the minute.

Try looking without subliminal guidance you clowns, and you too would easily see why Trump remains in office, he is currently the perfect president for elites that wish always to work in the shadows. Though, when ruling elites consider Trump a liability he would be out of office in two seconds flat.

Now, if we Aussies are able to see the political machinations in Washington from across the Pacific, what prevents YOU from seeing what is under your stupid, American, mesmerised noses, educated Americans?

At least try to open your eyes to the REAL game at play.
