What do you suppose is the primary reason the USA is withdrawing $millions in aid/funds to various states and organisations, NATO included. Let's see if you doodle dandy dreamboats are able to see the nose on your faces? No? I didn't expect so!

Kushner, the Jew in the family, is doing everything possible to cut huge amounts from Palestinian aid, the latest HUGE cutback, two thirds of the previously allotted amount is monstrous; the excuse offered by Kushmyer is transparent political garbage, Trump and Kushner imagine or are lying that the cutbacks would SOMEHOW help the millions of refugee Palestinians displaced by Israeli ethnic cleansing and American wars.

The above cutback, combined with Trump's attacks on the EU for not paying its way, especially with NATO, an extension of US armed forces, has resulted in Trump going on an obvious sales mission to dump over supplies of US second rate weapons to vassals and allies, which no sane nation -- with the exception of Australia, continue sucking your way out of office, Turnbull -- would waste their money on when far superior weapons are available for a fraction of the price American weapons manufacturers demand, notwithstanding the weapons on offer are already obsolete.

Pay your way Trump bellows to the EU, stop trading with Russia and China etc, etc, buy our redundant weapons instead because our security/military/industrial complex is in deep shit and has fallen behind other superpowers, screams the subtext. Who is that buffoon Trump and his Jew-boy son-in-law trying to kid? Very few indeed.

However, notice the almost $trillion Trump and Congress have gifted to the weapons manufacturers in the HOPE they are able to keep abreast of Russian and Chinese developments, REALISED for a fraction of the cost granted to US arms manufacturers, which huge funds -- they have to come from somewhere -- have cut social services, health, education and other essential infrastructure expenditure, to the bone, but that huge amount is clearly not enough to cover costs, as the nation and population falls apart from neglect, offshoring and siphoning funds to failing banks (TARP) and mega-corporations, which American sectors today are CLEARLY dysfunctional -- the F-35 strike 'lemon' says it all.

So keep chanting USA, USA, USA, with the arse out of your pants you incredibly stupid, blind, and cowardly fucks. Wake up dreamboats, you should be able to hear me from Australia, the con and bullshit are so obvious!

America is being bled dry by the banks over-printing greenbacks and the PARASITIC mega-corporations, while YOU eat shit, chanting 'USA' between mouthfuls -- have you noticed that chanting and saluting flags doesn't amount to a good meal and paying mortgages and rents?

God bless the criminals that have HIJACKED America. Almost the entire world is aware America is economically up the creek, there's a limit to printing token greenbacks and America reached it yesterday.

Furthermore, numerous nations are turning their backs on the star-spangled VAMPIRE and going for Chinese projects which are winners for EVERYONE involved. Bombs and coups have had their day Pentagon and CIA, it's all but over for America and there's nothing you clowns can do about it, because your violent methods are OBSOLETE. So let's all hear another chorus of the star-STRANGLED banner, dreamboats!

Nevertheless, Trump with CIA Pompeo and Neocon Bolton directing his every move will save the day, at least in someone's American DREAM.

The problem is not available money, it's WASTED money that weapons manufacturers stuff frantically into their pockets. How does it feel, all you 'good ol' boys'?
