

Disgraceful: Australian Government, Dysfunctional and Unrepresentative

Due to self-centred, obsessive bickering and infighting the sitting Oz government has today shutdown Parliament, well done incompetent CLOWNS!

Bib and Bub. A good example of what NEVER to vote for

The proof is in the pudding, as the familiar adage states. What is proven beyond shadow of a doubt is that Australian democracy, majority rule by representation, is dead. Western governments, particularly Westminster models have forgotten the central principle of rule, it's not about them, it's about RESPONSIBILITY to the people/nation and REPRESENTATION.

However, as is evident, now for the entire world to see, the nation and its people have been totally forgotten not only by this thoroughly INEPT, minority (elite) serving government but by previous navel-gazing governments that have displayed absolutely no consideration for their duties and responsibilities entrusted to them by the PEOPLE.

You see -- as is plain as day -- but not it would seem to our petty, narcissistic, self-centred, thoroughly INCOMPETENT politicians, it's NOT about YOU and your petty leadership aspirations, it's about the MANDATE entrusted to you (TEMPORARILY) by THE PEOPLE you are supposed to be SERVING, and for this gross oversight/NEGLIGENCE the Australian people would undoubtedly REACT, you can bet your tragic and PATHETIC careers on THAT!

Today's tragic ACT of DISSOLVING PARLIAMENT will cost both major parties dearly, they both run the very great risk of being thrust into the political wilderness BY the PEOPLE, as ANYTHING is better than the current political status quo, which today's events impress on the PEOPLE.

Well, fortunately the PEOPLE continue to rule by exercising THEIR PREROGATIVES, among which is the absolute legal right to install governments -- shock-horror for all self-centred, navel-gazing political clowns.

The Australian people are so fed up with the insular, DISCONNECTED attitude various governments have displayed OPENLY to the people that any sincere, aspiring politician that pledges REAL REPRESENTATION to the people and NATION, in contrast to the current status quo of serving corporate-banker elites, is a good chance for the next parliament. In FACT by installing as many genuine INDEPENDENT real representatives as possible, to majority levels, in BOTH houses, the nation would be protected from the ARROGANCE both major parties display toward the PEOPLE today.

The nation has been going backward on the international stage at speed due to our insular self-serving, disconnected INEPT current flock of politicians, well, the CURE to that disease is only an election away. Be told, opportunistic Shorten, elitist Turnbull and one-dimensional conservative Dutton and those that would support you to their great cost, you are ALL clearly hopeless and despised by the PEOPLE.

Australia now has a chance to demonstrate to the WORLD that REAL REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY is not an unattainable dream. I personally look forward to the next election and the purging of all those that infect parliament today, good luck lying and useless major parties, you'll need it!
