Typical of navel-gazing Americans they imagine that the recent NYT op-ed, purportedly revealing an internal “resistance” to the President of the nation by his own administration, is an internal matter. NOT so, this piece regardless of its source was published by one of America’s most respected media outlets, The New York Times (NYT), therefore it carries considerable weight world-wide and what an appalling, self-destructive publication the op-ed is!

It details a completely dysfunctional government and a personality flawed incompetent leader that his own administration opposes and SUBVERTS, to the ENTIRE WORLD; a very unwise decision, which consequence of airing one’s dirty laundry for all to see can ONLY be counter-productive for the USA.

Clearly, the first and foremost assessment is that it should NEVER have been published in the interests of the nation, such things, as listed in the op-ed, are better dealt with quietly and internally, however, the NYT decided against the public and nation’s interest to publish the anonymous piece without, it seems, proper consideration of the effect it would have on the status of the USA internationally.

Furthermore, a soon (weeks) to be released book by Bob Woodward of Watergate fame, further emphasises the chaos and dysfunction of the president/government. And to add to that, Michael Moore has just released his documentary film on Trump, ‘Fahrenheit 11/9,’ which pours more petrol on an already raging anti-American fire; and to think that all these subversive to the extreme, media productions have been produced INTERNALLY, no Russians or Chinese or the usual scapegoats, involved. So it’s a purely American subversion of America, an empire tearing itself apart from within, make no mistake about that reality and consequences, soon to be realised by ALL Americans.

One could almost believe that the consecutive timing of these three media events was planned for maximum DESTRUCTIVE effect, and they may well have been, BUT it’s ALL American made, without a hint of external interference. So America must accept the consequences of its own actions, which it has never done in its short history.

Former allies are shocked and have already begun forming new alliances, enemies are jumping for joy and making plans to further weaken the once most powerful nation on the planet, international respect for America is a rock bottom and America is to blame for this predicament, from which it cannot emerge intact. There is no curing the festering and potentially explosive major divisions in America today, from the top down the nation is fragmenting before our eyes and it cannot recover though some imagine it could. These delusionists imagine Trump is the problem, he is not, he is a symptom, a pathological leader for a pathological nation, as the WORLD sees it; the problem is NOT Trump though he appears to be, it is AMERICA itself undergoing RAPID disintegration and decline.

The secret cabals. oligarchs and shadow government seems to have unconsciously outsmarted themselves and the consequences would be dire. So finally it has all come HOME to roost America, so DEAL WITH IT!
