

The UN Ridicules and Openly Laughs at the President of the USA -- UNPRECEDENTED!

It seems that the world's most notable -- Donald Trump -- sufferer of Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD), which primary symptoms are grandiose delusions about SELF and the pathological need for adoration/recognition, which manifest as pathological LYING among other obvious personality flaws/pathologies, have collided with REALITY. Donald Trump was openly ridiculed and laughed at by WORLD leaders while delivering a fantasy-laden speech about himself at the UN, a stage that no politician wishes to fail on.

Trump of course suffers from a severe form of NPD, which combined symptoms divorce sufferers from REALITY. However, when reality strikes, as it ALWAYS does and did at the UN, NPD sufferer Trump retreated into psychological shock but continued his divorced from reality speech about how great he is and what he 'imagines' he has achieved. One was almost tempted to feel sorry for this sick buffoon. But reality spares no-one, particularly those that ignore it.

It should be noted that this is the first occasion that world leaders at the UN have openly ridiculed any world leader, so Trump did set a new precedent and America has paid the price.

Indeed, sick puppy Trump is now the most devoid of credibility leader in the entire world, quite an historical achievement. And so REALITY once again destroys the grandiose delusions of another NPD sufferer, who is actually the personification of the currently delusional, self-important nation of America. The US today has exactly the perfect president that reflects all the nation's delusions and self-important divorced from reality, DREAMS. It should also be noted that sufferers whether national/cultural or individual, are unable to deal with such ridicule and retreat further into self-delusion and AGGRESSIVE behaviour to compensate for their obvious FAILURES.

Have you got it NOW America, you are the laughing stock of the entire WORLD and your credibility amounts to zero, well done, DREAMBOATS? No nation is 'indispensable or exceptional' when it is PROFOUNDLY LOST and SICK.
