

IGNORE Trump

Sufferers of Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD) crave attention and they will do ANYTHING to get it like the spoiled infants they are, and we should have all witnessed the seeding pathology of spoiled infants, which in adults manifests as psychopathology and sociopathology.

It is no secret that the world's most infamous sufferer of NPD is Donald Trump whose antics and infantile behaviour are classic textbook examples of NPD.

Therefore the most effective solution or cure is to ostracise and IGNORE Trump, who would then progressively pursue more attention grabbing behaviours and the more he is ignored the more extreme those behaviours would become until the sufferer implodes -- you see, and understand it, ostracising and IGNORING NPD suffers is tantamount to torture for them and I do not exaggerate.

Now of course certain segments of the mass media would continue to pay attention to Trump until they realise they are losing reader/viewership and then they too would get the message that Trump is not only toxic for America and the WORLD he is toxic for RATINGS and that hurts as the life blood of media, advertisers, FLEE.

So it's really up to the population of the world to snub this pathological, infantile IDIOT by applying the same tactic that works wonderfully on spoiled infants/brats.

And if you doubt the outcome then IGNORE him and see what happens.
