

The Illegal Seizure of National Assets

by stella Thursday, Apr 18 2019, 11:03pm

international / prose / post

In its efforts to cripple and weaken Venezuela for takeover, the USA and its UK ally have illegally seized enormous cash reserves (US financial structures) and Venezuelan gold holdings (UK).

No doubt that criminal move, designed to allow a Washington puppet usurper to take control of the country and then hand its massive oil assets over to US oil companies, has had a severe impact, yet the legitimate government stands with the support of the people that installed it in democratic elections, while the imperial, THIEVING USA pretends to uphold democracy, what a laugh!

However, this is not the first instance where gangster states have STOLEN the assets of other weaker states. Consider Libya, and its former leader, Gaddafi, assassinated by the west, who was one of the richest men in the world and Libya was the only DEBT FREE country in the world due to the massive wealth it accumulated under Gaddafi's rule - the elite global banking cartel couldn't live with that reality as other nations may then have broken free of financial debt slavery and so Gaddafi was first demonised and then slaughtered and his HUGE gold reserves and cash assets, were appropriated (stolen) by western banking institutions to 'help with rebuilding the nation,' give me a break, no evidence of that "rebuilding" has ever been seen, only oil companies building infrastructures to steal Libyan oil is evident.

Now let's take a look at how Gaddafi spent his nations wealth. Free medical, education to tertiary level, free houses for married couples and free international education if the citizen was able and desired it, and NO DEBT to foreign banks/interests, that is REAL social freedom. Compare with western societies, particularly the debt crippled US population which pays through the nose for education, health care and other essential services; Gaddafi's model was far superior, this leader spent national assets on his people and the nation and elevated the standard of living to the highest on the African continent and he continued to improve his nation before he was criminally assassinated at the behest of the global banking elites. Readers should note that less than three weeks into the NATO illegal bombing, a (western) Reserve Bank "with governor" was established in Benghazi, Gaddafi was alive but on the run for his life at the time. However, the onslaught from western corporate and financial interests continued until they destroyed the nation and its leader on the basis/pretext of the 'Right to Protect' (R2P) WHO? Clearly the THIEVING interests of western banking/corporate elites as is so obviously evident. The same process is underway in Venezuela, after all it worked in Libya, however, former allies of Libya and Gaddafi, China and Russia, have finally grown some balls and have supported the legitimately elected government of Maduro and outwardly opposed western criminal interests, though it's a crying shame they did not support allies Yugoslavia and Libya when both nations were under attack from western criminal interests.

Now to the politicised, puppet and thoroughly corrupt international courts which seem to have a blind spot regarding US and allied OBVIOUS war crimes and other crimes against humanity. Nonetheless, rogue nations thieving the assets and resources of other weaker nations must constitute a crime otherwise we live in a truly lawless world. Where is China and Russia in this most critical arena, which concerted actions in such, would either restore Venezuela's assets to the Venezuelan people and Libya's stolen assets to the Libyan people, after order is restored, or fully expose the Hague courts as political servants of western global banking and western corporate elites. Furthermore reparations could then be sought by nations criminally attacked by the US and NATO and western assets could be utilised to pay for the massive damages inflicted by offending criminal nations that have reduced weaker, attacked nations to rubble and ruin, there is a very long list of these affected nations, including Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan, Syria, Yemen, Sudan and numerous other nations.

Now, it is also known that the Rothschild's lent $trillions to China to build infrastructure etc with the aim of moving manufacturing to China and profiting from its incredibly low cost labour, which was done and China kept its side of the bargain while western working populations paid the price for offshoring/'globalisation' which elite interests seeking evermore profit, benefited from immensely. Also Putin's enormous $250 billion dollar wealth, stashed in western banks, which he could NOT have legitimately made on his wages and business interests in Russia alone must be investigated and explained.

Indeed readers, it appears that the filthy hands of global elite corruption reach very far indeed, everyone does have a price it seems. However, if China and Russia pursued the US and allies in the Hague Courts for legitimate reasons then we could safely deduce that they are not part of the corrupt global, puppet network; however, at this stage I'm not so sure as I and many others cannot determine why Russia, China and other nations illegally attacked by western nations have NOT pursued those responsible for the criminal seizure of national assets and reparations for war damages and compensation to ALL families world-wide, which have lost INNOCENT relatives to indiscriminate western bombing campaigns, which dollar amounts would roughly approximate in the trillions in ongoing compensation and reparations. So two can play at the game, though one is the legal approach and the other western approach is flagrantly criminal.

When are you in this regard, Russia, China and allies going to ACT?? It is simply unacceptable NOT to pursue criminal nations engaged in OVERTLY criminal enterprises, which have cost millions of INNOCENT lives. Your inaction in the international legal arena makes NO SENSE whatsoever, in fact it stinks!

In the meantime, STAND FIRM VENEZUELA, as surely as day follows night Justice will be served though recent news indicates that the Hague courts have deferred to US wishes/threats if they continue to pursue American/NATO war crimes -- is more proof required of systemic corruption at the Hague? However, the clearly PARTIAL Hague courts must be made an issue of and forced to SERVE the LAW and justice without fear or favour or be exposed to the WORLD as the politicised, biased PUPPETS they actually ARE.

---

Inverse Times Open Publishing. <http://inversetimes.lingama.net/news/story-578.html>