

INJUSTICE in Plain Sight

international / prose / post

In your face is the travesty unfolding regarding the persecution of Julian Assange for simply exposing U.S. war and other crimes against humanity, and exposing the intrigues of bought puppet U.S. politicians, yet few are outraged. So where does it lead? Criminals in high places prosper and expand their criminal enterprises/agendas. There are no excuses for cowardice, not supporting justice and opposing PROVEN criminals.

Indeed, we are all responsible for allowing criminal elites to hijack our governments and spread mayhem, death and destruction internationally with the sole purpose of increasing their ill-gotten wealth at everyone's expense. Do you not realise that by not supporting truth and justice it affects everyone, as you would soon see.

I need not continue as you know it, but are too afraid to restore your respective nations and too gullible to see past all the LIES and media PROPAGANDA that issues from the ELITE OWNED mass media.

Well, good fuckin' luck to all you lamers and gutless wonders cos u'll need it; frankly, you all deserve what you get and you will get plenty more by ignoring obvious, proven crimes and allowing those with integrity to be persecuted by BRAZEN CRIMINALS and criminal rogue States. And the Assange case is not the fraction of it -- for pete's sake, a nation is only its people and if its people fail themselves then the nation and everything else is LOST!

Are you reading this, you criminal elite bastards, I will fight you to the end, alone if necessary, as I and many others cannot and will NOT tolerate criminal rule?

[If you are of a mind and HEART, share around, as this and other sites that focus on TRUTH and exposing heinous crimes have been backgrounded/censored by guess who?]
