Fly

u captured	me	with	ur	deep,	easy	eyes, free me

u embraced me with ur firm body, free me u enslaved me with ur poetic heart, free me the words u weave mesmerise my mind, free me caught in bliss we fly over the drear of humanity over trees, seas, mountains and plains, eagles defer to our ecstatic soaring i cannot nor would i fight this captivity, free me i was blind, lost and miserable until ur love set me free i am a slave in ur arms who would have thought a chance encounter would grow endlessly and break the shackles of a perverse and contorted culture?

play me forever, never leave me, i surrender completely
