

Media Crap, Distraction and REALITY

It is truly amazing how ALL media, alternative and mainstream, knowingly in the second instance and unknowingly in the first, fall for the media distraction game. If media is analysed, it becomes evident that Assange, the PERSON, is a MAJOR DISTRACTION designed to shift focus away from criminals in high places. You want proof? Well here, suck on some reality for a change.

The USA, led by criminals since the Clinton and following presidencies, is the WORLD'S LEADING civilian killing nation, how many times has this appalling FACT made the news?

The Wolf Cries 'Terrorism'

Now consider the word 'terrorism,' by definition – look it up – its primary definition is to slaughter innocent civilians with a view to effect political change. So if you are able to add 2+2 you are easily able to conclude that the world's leading civilian killing nation is the world's LEADING TERRORIST State, pure and simple; BUT who is aware of that REALITY, which defines America without doubt, and easily proven, to BE the leading terrorist state of the WORLD? Not the privately owned (by criminals) mass media that's for sure, the last thing they want is for the masses to focus on REALITY and the outrageous, OBVIOUS crimes of the American government, which insider whistleblowers via Assange exposed for the world to see, not that it has done much good – though the future is another story in the making.

While the stupid, easily led alternative media pulls our attention away from the culpable to focus on the person of Assange, who is relative (to major crimes) insignificant, the KNOWN, heinous crimes of the American State remain unaddressed and the perpetrators remain at large to continue their criminal pursuits. So the mass media is running on overdrive to keep the public's and the alternative media's attention from focusing on the REAL issues – STATE CRIME – not a publisher who clearly has a martyr complex, notwithstanding he is only a publisher of information, which is NOT a criminal act, it's called journalism!

So who is INVESTIGATING how the criminal US regime functions, or how it hijacked the American Republic and then spread mayhem around the GLOBE? Very few indeed, and those that do are not heard, as the mass media ensures the public is constantly DISTRACTED.

The USA functions above local and international law – how is that possible in a civilised world? Its crimes are always smothered by the sewage that issues from privately owned information outlets/newswires, which if viewed without emotion all sing the same chorus, which should be an impossibility in a decentralised, free press democratic society. Though of course, by such disinformation orchestrations the USA and its criminal regimes remain free and above the law and none of those known to be directly responsible for the MURDER of millions of INNOCENT civilians are ever held to account.

NOW YOU TELL ME WHAT IS MORE IMPORTANT TO THE WORLD'S WELL BEING, A NARCISSIST WITH A MARTYR COMPLEX CONFRONTING HIS FATE OR PUTTING AN END TO THE CRIMINAL

WARS OF THE USA, AND HOLDING THE MASS MURDERERS, 'TERRORISTS' TO ACCOUNT?

In all my years I have never seen such gullibility as that which is in plague proportions today, and YOU MORONS imagine you are free, you CLEARLY can't even think straight. I suggest you first look in the mirror and ask yourself what that nose-ring that adorns your mindless faces actually is, then REMOVE it and FOCUS on REALITY. Who knows, you may even take back your respective nations and jail the terrorists that control your governments and YOU.
