

Oman Attacks - Pompeo, Iran Did It! But Where's the Evidence, you lying Clown?

The BBC reported the attacks on tankers in the Gulf of Oman stating that no-one knows as yet which of many groups is responsible, but Mike Pompeo knows, it's Iran! Though of course he hasn't got a skerrick of evidence to back his claim. It's just another of many recent false flag failures.

Mike Pompeo, forced to do better today

The one takeaway from all is that old dogs do not learn new tricks, as if the entire world since Bush, Blair and Howard lied us all into an illegal preemptive war with Iraq, hasn't LEARNED. Though the Obama/Clinton attacks on Libya and Syria, based on pretexts, transparent false flags and orchestrated lies, ensured international distrust of Washington. It's a very long time since the US successfully deployed these tactics on Yugoslavia, to destabilise and destroy a sovereign State, however, the world is much the wiser TODAY!

Indeed, the world is NOT so easily fooled and beguiled today and Bolton and Pompeo had better ensure their plan and tactics are fool proof, in other words the world requires VERIFIABLE EVIDENCE/PROOF, not the fabricated lies, hearsay, baby powder ('anthrax') in a tube displayed by LYING U.S. politicians at the UN, and media saturation of falsehoods - fool me once, as they say.

No doubt the USA will soon roll out the 'evidence' it needs, which the world would assess for itself and it is sure to fall apart if the Jamal Khashoggi assassination (monumental bungle) is any indication of Arab expertise.

So Mike and John, your careers and necks are on the line as well as your nefarious, illegal war plans, which would be duly exposed as other heads would roll with your own, so it better be good!
