Firstly, how can any man with a 1 inch dick be cocked and loaded? Secondly, the entire Iranian threat is a sham as “fire and fury” indicated regarding NK, all verbal crap from a president that has never done anything but bluster with empty threats - TRUMP IS ALL MOUTH and NO ACTION, plain to see!

Remember all the idiotic threats against North Korea, which amounted to Kim Jong Un playing Trump like a marionette. This president is the weakest president on record, the entire world is AWARE that Trump is all mouth. There was never any chance that Trump would attack Iran as the result would have been disastrous for the global economy if the flow of oil from the Persian Gulf ceased due to Iran retaliating to any attack from America.

Iran KNOWS that it can destroy the international economy by blocking the flow of oil from the Gulf; oil prices as Goldman Sachs predict could go as high as $1000/barrel. So attack imbecile Trump, nothing would please the global population more than you shooting down the entire western economic power structure, I mean talk about an imbecilic, powerless president! But of course we KNOW that Trump leads nothing except a base of American yokels that can't spell their names. So make Bolton and Pompeo happy and attack, Mr neutered president, you are inconsequential in world affairs.

Trump like presidents before him takes his orders from the global financial elites and the last thing they want or would allow, is for some imbecile braggart to risk their money and power. So wake up to the hard reality world, it's time to ostracise America and the imbeciles and psychopaths that run it.

Though nothing would please the real underground more than a war in the Persian Gulf. Are you reading this Benni, Salman and the rest of you cowardly, mass murdering, limp dicks? Try another ruse if your able in a WORLD that is fully awake to political reality and the transparent machinations of puppet American administrations that MUST do what they're TOLD.
