

Senseless

there is no sense to be had from dulled senses that feed/pollute minds and perversity what lasting gain or good is to be had from the conflicts born of perverse avaricious minds?

give me pure water to drink which once flowed freely over the land give me clean air to breathe which now is only available on the highest mountain tops ur poison minds produce poison fruits u are killing the earth and its life though ur dulled senses tell u it's necessary for profit and progress, but what profit/progress exists in death?

there is no mystery except the profound stupidity of humankind that now rejects all things harmonious, natural and clean

contorted minds twisted into knots cannot hope to see the easy path of harmony

so continue until u are no more never knowing the paradise u have lost, existence will not miss u join the many failed species before u;

existence continues without the slightest regret, only those aware of its harmony and peace thrive in worlds beyond ur pathetic, poisonous reach

you have only failed your profoundly stupid selves
