

Iran and More Fake/Shaped News From American Mass Media

by lex Friday, Sep 20 2019, 10:20pm

international / prose / post

America today leads the world in Fake News, call it propaganda, misinformation, or whatever you like, regardless of the label the American media of distraction and social management is a fine tuned LYING machine.

Everyone should have noticed the recent saturation news of a possible attack on Iran, this is a good summary from CommonDreams, however, everyone including the alt-news media has missed the point, ALL American wars are economic today, that is, to gain PROFIT in the form of valuable resources and strategic advantage in order to facilitate more PROFIT; this FACT was outlined by a former Marine Major General, Smedley Butler, who wrote a short piece titled, "War is a Racket," of course he was perfectly correct in that view and he ought to know. So how is it that no-one sees today that it is Wall Street Banks and the mega-energy corporations they support that make the final decisions regarding the possible, though unlikely, military attack on Iran, which attack would pose the largest threat to the global economy in modern history?

The consequences of a military attack on Iran would make the 2008 global financial crisis look like kindergarten play time, fact. So it becomes ever more obvious that all the crap streaming like the sewage it is, see above link, is nothing more than distraction and propaganda as those that control the global economy would be loath to jeopardise it for any reason.

So clearly the decision rests with the mega corporations and banks not the Pentagon or servile politicians, like Trump and the members of Congress, all of whom are in the pockets of mega-wealthy western elites.

Democracy is a farce in the USA as the commercial interests I refer to, call all the shots and make all the major decisions that could affect THEIR wealth and their ability to manage a 'useful' (to them) global economy.

So get over it uninformed morons, if you want to know the likelihood of war with Iran, ask Goldman Sachs and the other major Wall Street banks whether they are willing to risk the consequences of a foolhardy war misadventure in Iran, which war would make the illegal Iraq invasion seem like a walk in the park. In other words why bother with the puppets, ask the REAL rulers of the Western world what they intend – notwithstanding you would not get a direct answer but if a savvy reporter with good sources in this sector plied their craft, that person/s would be able to give a more accurate assessment of the situation. The rest is the usual play-acting and usual crap from the CFR managed mass media, which is loath to ever publish the Truth, simply recall the LIES and misinformation leading up to the Iraq invasion for proof.

Now, the question arises, should we, the overwhelming democratic majority allow a bunch of bloodsucking Wall Street criminal parasites to determine our future and the conditions under which we live? As indeed it always reduces to unrepresentative elite rule OR democratic rule by the MAJORITY.

Stop playing the game scripted for you by unrepresentative mass murdering and socially parasitic criminal elites if you wish to have a tenable, sustainable and harmonious future. The media, banks, corporations they own form an alliance of criminal interests that are money addicted, and it is that addiction which is their Achilles heel and determines every action they take. And without inside information, the likelihood of accurate information is minimal.

It is time to remove the mass media nose-ring from your faces/brains and begin to think clearly and independently and then ACT like the FREE HUMAN BEINGS YOU REALLY ARE, not the slaves and timid sheep the media has made of you.

The majority in any society always determine, actively or passively, the outcome in any respect of their society; so become an ACTIVE PARTICIPANT, not a shit-eating PASSIVE SLAVE bound by nothing more than digital chains, as the social power is in YOUR hands to wield as YOU see fit any time you choose. And if any 'war' is worth waging it is your personal war against the liars, cheats, murderers and parasites, which war you MUST win if you intend to survive in a tenable and reasonably harmonious, free world.

Today's American

---

Inverse Times Open Publishing. <http://inversetimes.lingama.net/news/story-827.html>