Gabbard is perfectly in order to criticise puppet Trump for surrendering his presidential prerogative to Saudi Arabia. Trump, supreme coward and puppet-in-chief cannot make a decision to commit or otherwise, America to a potentially calamitous war with Iran, so what does he do? Leaves the decision to a bunch of proven incompetent Arabs. Whoever would have imagined American would have become so lost and weak today? Home of the brave and land of the free, my arse!

Tulsi Gabbard for president, absolutely!

If you wish to find proof of this American tragedy, yet to be played out by a foreign nation, then take it from the horse's mouth/arse itself, gutless and incompetent president Trump. The sooner this servile empty head is removed and replaced by the likes of Tulsi Gabbard, the better for America and the world.
