

No Progress or Peace until Social Contradictions are Resolved

What do people everywhere want? Peace and a tenable, harmonious, sustainable life. The earth freely provides everything we need to live so where's the problem? Where's the problem indeed, and if you fail to locate or see it, YOU will never have peace, harmony, stability and freedom in your life.

Peace and harmony are desired by all but what do we get instead? WAR, inequality, exploitation, THEFT from OUR leaders, regardless of which nation we reside in. Are you/we able to reconcile this GLARING contradiction? Of course you/we are! Who voted for a surveillance State, NOBODY; who voted for WAR, nobody, who voted for huge disparities in wealth and screaming inequalities, NOBODY, etc, etc. So where did WE go WRONG?

Ruling elites do NOT represent the sentiments of the MAJORITY, OBVIOUS! So how is it this tiny minority rules over the many? Answer, YOU/WE have failed to participate in y/our society's directions, OBVIOUS. So don't dare point a finger at anyone but yourself, as a UNITED global majority is impossible to defeat, an obvious FACT.

So, in whose interest is it that the masses remain divided? UNREPRESENTATIVE, minority, ruling elites that divide and paralyse us all with LIES and propaganda in order to serve their own avaricious interests. Ruling elites of course orchestrate unnecessary wars (for profit) with LIES and propaganda and so we are duped into fighting and dying for the profits of the few. We must defend against any threat to our nation, they say - now ask yourself what threat, other than the fictions the elite owned mass media presents?

The masses have no enemies it's only the people that are deceived, exploited and enslaved by despicable cunning minority elites that imagine they have enemies -- well, only elites have an enemy, the socially aware masses.

Throughout history - from ancient Egypt, Rome to Washington, Beijing and Moscow today, it's always been the same problem, elites and enslaved masses, it's time to beak the psychological chains, finally. Now, let's not initially target straw-men (politicians), ask who owns our politicians instead, and you would discover Big MONEY in the form of large world Banks and trans-national mega-corporations that parasitically feed off the blood, sweat and tears of the innocent and exploited masses, which 'media managed' group also does all the fighting and dying in elite orchestrated wars - give sanity a break!.

The contradictions inherent in all modern societies of the world are SCREAMING in y/our faces and we are being played by dis/misinformation disseminated by MASS MURDERS, LIARS THIEVES and deceptive CHEATS, a good current example is the CIA 'whistleblowers' attempting to eliminate Trump from office, but for whom? The entire charade is so transparent it's absurd, these agencies work for elites not the nation or people. We know who rules and what they treasure above all, MONEY, and so the president of the NY Federal Reserve BANK says openly, in so many words that Trump must go in order to stabilise the global economy, BUT who owns the global economy, it's a game of EXPLOITATION played by minority ruling elites, and if anyone threatens their parasitic wealth/power that person must be eliminated/removed or 'neutralised'.

However, THE PROBLEM remains OBVIOUS, we must eliminate RULE by UNREPRESENTATIVE MINORITIES, pure and SIMPLE FACT! And until we wake to the glaring contradictions in our lives we remain slaves buffered by the most evil human forces on the planet. Now, I MUST add that human nature is frail, and if we were in their position we would do exactly the same as they, as absolute power/wealth corrupts absolutely. THE PROBLEM is in the structure of society -- leaders and (blind) followers -- pure and simple. So the solution should be obvious, no more elite leaders and no more dumb and blind FOLLOWERS.

Violence begets violence, as we know, so we do it without a shot being fired, the MOST EFFECTIVE way; popular demand and the threat of withdrawing OUR support, as our leaders depend on us like parasites to do their bidding. Never forget it is WE that MAINTAIN ALL societies and unconsciously serve ruling elites, which are powerless if we withdraw our labour from their institutions and belief in the LIES disseminated by THEIR mass media.

Withdrawing support (belief and labour) destroys ALL perverse power (inequality) structures and re-invests power to the masses, the PEOPLE where it belongs in EVERY REAL DEMOCRACY. People would then select true representative leaders that serve the masses not the interests of minority elites that bribe and corrupt, which criminal minority would soon disappear. And the minute leaders veer from their allotted tasks they would face the people IMMEDIATELY in the streets and in THEIR homes, not in three or five years time at a remote polling booth. IMMEDIATELY means that leaders would be loath to lie and suffer the IMMEDIATE consequences, and be loath to implement policies that do not serve the interests of the majority, the PEOPLE, and it MUST be the PEOPLE that ENSURE we keep good and bad leaders honest and in check, notwithstanding a bad leader would be removed immediately.

Nothing stated above is new and its not rocket science, BUT it does require one simple activity, THAT WE PARTICIPATE in our respective societies on a DAILY basis and hold all our leaders to account the INSTANT they stray or veer from the interests of the majority. Not a difficult task.

Now take another look at all the wars for the profits of the few and the misery of the many, and realise no-one wanted pan-surveillance except fearful elites; and who implemented information censorship? Elites, NOT YOU! Censorship serves the frightened to death minorities that hope we, the most powerful social force that exists, never WAKE to the fact that WE MUST STAND UNITED AGAINST A COMMON ENEMY AT ALL TIMES.

Globally we are billions and THEY are but a few, so either act in Y/OUR own interests or continue to be enslaved, exploited and eat shit for your reward -- do you need non-representative leaders or me telling you how to act in Your own interests? NO!

Reforming societies is as easy as piss if those evil forces that divide us are eliminated, and guess where those evil forces reside? In y/our HEAD, notwithstanding it's obvious how they got there!

No more blame game and pointing fingers, and if you encounter any spineless finger pointer, simply refer them to this article and tell them to grow up and accept responsibility for their own life.

Real freedom is earned, never bestowed.

Peace.
