

Tulsi Gabbard's WSJ Op-Ed

by Stephen Lendman via claire - SL website Saturday, Nov 2 2019, 10:44pm international / prose / post

Gabbard is the ONLY candidate with Sane Solutions -- support her!

The Rupert Murdoch-owned Wall Street Journal surprisingly gave anti-war/pro-social justice presidential aspirant, Tulsi Gabbard, op-ed space on October 29 to express her views freely.

Tulsi Gabbard, the only sane choice for president of the United States

Since entering the race for the nation's highest office, establishment media shunned or demeaned her — the only anti-war progressive running; her agenda is the polar opposite of the bipartisan US war party which 'perpetual war' doctrine is heinous and criminal to say the least.

Hillary smeared her by falsely suggesting she's a Russian asset — “groom(ed) to be (a) third party candidate.”

Last week, Gabbard said at a time when “our world is moving ever closer to a nuclear holocaust...when we may be sucked into another even more disastrous war in the Middle East, and tensions with other nuclear powers are escalating, and with that, a new arms race and Cold War that can only end in nuclear catastrophe, I believe I can best serve the people of Hawaii and our country as your president and commander-in-chief,” adding:

“As president, I will immediately begin work to end the new Cold War and nuclear arms race, end our interventionist foreign policy of carrying out regime change wars, and redirect our precious resources towards serving the needs of the people here at home.”

Gabbard is passing up a congressional reelection bid to focus entirely on seeking the nation's highest office — stressing she wants to put “people ahead of profits...people ahead of politics...the well being of our people and our planet above all else.”

Her WSJ op-ed headlined: “I Can Defeat Trump and the Clinton Doctrine,” saying:

“The US (on her watch) will stop trying to overthrow governments and police the world,” adding:

“I’m running for president to undo Mrs. Clinton’s failed legacy. From Iraq to Libya to Syria, her record is replete with foreign-policy catastrophes. It’s a primary reason why I resigned as vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee in 2016.”

Hillary notoriously was the most ruthlessly dangerous presidential aspirant in US history. She remains unaccountable for major war crimes, racketeering and perjury.

If Clinton was elevated to president and commander-in-chief, endless US wars of aggression would follow, possibly nuclear war, risking destruction of planet earth and all its life forms.

She and her media press agents never forgave Gabbard for not endorsing her. As for accusations about being backed by Russia or other foreign powers, it’s part of a propaganda smear campaign to demean and weaken her chances of gaining the increased support she deserves.

Gabbard: “Those who are indebted to the war machine and the overreaching intelligence agencies, as well as their cheerleaders in the media, are determined to take me down because they know they can’t control me. I’m directly challenging their power.”

US dark forces [Deep State] want presidents, key congressional members, and the courts supporting their self-serving, profits for the few, agenda — rigging things to assure anti-war/progressive candidates aren’t elected or appointed to high office, in other words, wanting the dirty business of perpetual wars left unchanged.

Hillary is a hugely unpopular two-time loser. Gabbard asked why would Dems think a third run by her for the nation’s highest office “would result in anything different,” adding:

Whether she’s “on the ballot or not, her foreign policy will be, as many of the (Dem) candidates adhere to her doctrine of acting as the world’s police, using the tools of war to overthrow governments we don’t like, wasting taxpayer dollars, costing American lives, causing suffering and destruction abroad, and undermining America’s security.”

“A Gabbard presidency would mean the end of trying to police the world, no more overthrowing governments, an end to the new Cold War and nuclear arms race, and redirecting our resources to urgent needs at home.”

“That doesn’t mean I’m an isolationist. I will lead with a robust, positive foreign policy based on diplomacy and cooperation rather than confrontation and conflict.”

“Those who follow the Bush-Clinton doctrine believe the only way to interact with other nations is by bombing them or starving them with draconian sanctions.”

It’s also the Obama doctrine, the same agenda of most past US presidents and vast majority of congressional members.

It’s an imperial doctrine, demanding other nations bend to Washington’s will or be smashed by war and/or economic terrorism.

It’s a neoliberal harshness doctrine, serving privileged interests exclusively at the expense of equity and justice for all.

It's a police state doctrine, targeting truth-telling journalists like Julian Assange and whistleblowers exposing government wrongdoing like Chelsea Manning.

It's an anti-democratic, anti-human and civil rights doctrine, notions the US ruling class and its supportive media abhor.

Gabbard said if elected president, she'll work to "revers(e) the damage the Bush-Clinton doctrine has done to America and the world."

Anthropologist Margaret Mead once said: "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it's the only thing that ever has."

Small numbers of committed people can motivate larger numbers to get involved, what's badly needed.

Activism for positive change requires taking to the streets, putting bodies of committed people on the line, no longer tolerating the minority serving status quo that exploits ordinary people so the privileged can benefit.

Real change, as opposed to Obama's top down lies always comes from the bottom up, this is why voting in a rigged system achieves nothing. As we have seen only names and faces change but the elite status quo persists.

The only solution today is nonviolent, popular r/evolution — headed by responsible, REPRESENTATIVE leadership for real transformative change, it would be the only viable option available to the people, given the current corrupt status quo.

Aspirants for high office on a peace, equity and justice agenda like Gabbard are never supported by the criminal powers that be, that is why Gabbard, who is representing the wishes of the people, NOT the wishes of criminal elites, needs your help as real change is effected by the people the majority.

That is why the overwhelming majority must first make popular demands against the criminal forces that have hijacked our Republic; however, if we meet with violent opposition on the streets then clearly we must fight for our rights and liberties, as real freedom is never bestowed it is earned.

What is currently going on -- massive social protests -- in Chile, Haiti, Lebanon, Gaza, Ecuador, France, and elsewhere is needed most of all in the US and other vassal Western states.

We should never forget what our fathers and their fathers before them fought and died for, today however, the enemy is within. All support for Tulsi Gabbard assists in the fight against oppression by privileged, ruling, criminal elites. If we fail to take back America we are clearly doomed, as the current insane direction and policies could only lead to ruination in every respect.

Copyright applies.

[Edited]

<https://stephenlendman.org/2019/11/tulsi-gabbards-wsj-op-ed/>

