

Nobody Can Stop the 'Music'

Excuse the lyric quote from a once popular Village People song, but it is appropriate, the 'music' in this instance is TRUTH and its dissemination, which today's mass media has failed miserably to broadcast -- it now specialises in distraction, misinformation, omissions, out right LIES and PROPAGANDA, as should be obvious to ALL - anyone that views, listens, reads or believes anything from mainstream media outlets, including digital tech social media outlets, is being managed by a clearly sinister group that maintains its power behind the scenes by controlling the dominant (fictional) cultural narrative, and these forces are now attempting to CENSOR alternative, independent news outlets that continue to publish accurate information.

Well, this and other news sites have suffered extreme backgrounding and censorship from the cooperative 'Deep State' powers that be, we anticipated it early and so have continued to reach the public by various technological tricks and other digital means, as no-one is able to completely control the Internet, FACT!

Everything about the Internet was designed with COMMUNICATION, not security, in mind, including protocols that are easily 'tunnelled' and other hardware means, routers for example, that are easily hacked and utilised to broadcast important information very broadly indeed. And what can the 'man' do about it? Very little, as it would require complete removal of existing technology and its replacement, which would also, sooner rather than later, be hacked. Nevertheless, Deep State interests must persist in trying to misinform and manage the public as their very LIVES depend on it -- if the TRUTH were known people would hang the psychopathic criminal culprits from the nearest light poles, as their crimes against humanity, at home and internationally, are so heinous the sheer outrage and loathsome duplicity, over an extended period, would overwhelm civilised behaviour and result in instant KARMA/JUSTICE, as these interests are responsible for all the mass murder of innocents and needless wars, for THEIR profit, based on LIES and pretexts, e.g. LYING to the masses about imaginary and/or orchestrated, engineered 'threats.' They view the public, you, me and y/our families as EXPENDABLE!

So as I check all the hubs today and see that they have published information recently released via hidden channels I laugh at the futile attempts of these Deep State players to suppress the TRUTH, in other words, the writing is on the wall for these criminal interests that kill US presidents, assassinate other foreign leaders and murder MILLIONS of innocent civilians in their flagrant, military THEFT process while oppressing home populations with imaginary fears, media lies, and outright police intimidation, which regulatory forces, as is known, have an unwritten though clearly approved license to kill anyone that resists oppression or does not comply with outrageous orders to submit even though the large majority of these slaughtered people are later proven innocent of ANY crime. For pete's sake, Youtube videos show innocent (proven after the fact) unarmed black teenagers being gunned down while attempting to flee (who can blame them?) the mass murdering police, which would rather shoot first then ask questions later.

But the real question is who are these regulatory forces really serving and whose property and wealth are they really protecting? Any interested party is able to research the early and developmental formation of 'policing/agencies' and in whose interests they work, and I am able to assure you now prior to your verification that historically, it has always been wealthy ruling elites, otherwise known today as the Deep State Oligarchy, which treats the people and their political representatives with the utmost CONTEMPT - 'how dare OUR cattle and sheep challenge our criminal rule!'

Take a look at what they're doing to ego flawed Assange, though he asked for it by making himself a public figure soon to be martyred, FOOL! If Deep State ruling elites have found it necessary to hide THEIR identities how much more does that apply to average people opposed to those criminal forces and criminal rule?

Nevertheless, elite power structures and mechanisms are constantly challenged and subverted, as there is nothing elites can do to prevent it, mass monitoring (surveillance) is only able to function if identities are known, therefore, if people keep their real identities private or have multiple legal identities then surveillance is useless, notwithstanding the fact that if they act in a manner which doesn't reveal their identity then who is able to apportion blame, no-one! We are the 'ghosts' in THEIR machines - LOL.

I am able to boldly state not one person or moderator of this and affiliate sites has ever been questioned or targeted by 'authorities' and we are not the Uber hacker elite which support us, we are average hackers and our methods are available to all with a little research and advice from specialists, which specialists, for the most part, amusingly work for governments, including agencies and large IT corporations - why/how so, you may well ask? Answer: simply because these agencies and commercial interests are FORCED to hire based on superior SKILL and performance; you see, if they hire second rate specialists they are at the mercy of first rate hackers/specialists, ie, the Uber hacking elites, and so the CAUSE is lost to criminal wealthy elites before it starts, to quote from The Art of War by Sun Tzu, "the battle is won or lost before it starts," you useless clowns!

So now you see that the Deep State, its oligarchs and plutocrats are LOSERS in the REAL sense as they only specialise in financial manipulation/theft, media LIES, murder and exploitation, none of them specialise in the REAL power game, DIGITAL TECH - LOL. Simply look at how they contracted to the outfit Edward Snowden worked for and compromised themselves, fuckin' useless Deep State players -- YOUR DAYS ARE NUMBERED and if you weren't aware before, YOU ARE NOW, as NOBODY CAN STOP THE 'MUSIC' - and how very sweet it is, ;o)

Now to ALL you defeatist, media-numbed idiots out there, nothing has changed since day one in any society, whatever one man makes another can break and that applies to everything -- you are oppressed/paralysed in MIND and WILL only, which illusion suits the Deep State and its servants fine!

"Freedom is earned, NEVER bestowed!"
