

Impeachment, Impeachment and the 'News' of Distraction

Donald Trump as president has received more news coverage during his term as president than all previous presidents put together - now that is something worthy of note as we all know that the concentrated mass media is owned and controlled by elite (CFR members) plutocrats that ensure a particular TAILORED coverage that is in their and other elite interests - have you not noted that the mass, and to a large extent alternative media, is led by an obvious scripted narrative - they CLEARLY sing in chorus and unison a reality never seen previously when the mass media was independent and diverse?

Moron puppet Trump

So if we analyse this extraordinary media phenomenon we must also consider the forces behind it - which are easily traced to 'Deep State' elite interests. So does it really matter if Trump is impeached? Not in the least, as historical REALITY informs us that these elite interests would replace Trump, whose policies have always served elite interests not the public, with another stooge/puppet -- on that outcome be completely assured as no western nation is outside the insidious influence/reach of these mega-wealthy powerful elite interests that control the world economy, mass media and print the paper US dollar on demand, notwithstanding the obvious influence of Rupert Murdoch who travels the world and places western leaders in power and then deposes them when they do not fulfil their obligations to those elite interests - the entire game is a charade played on a numbed and distracted public - after all, WHO GIVES A FUCK IF TRUMP IS IMPEACHED AS WE KNOW THAT HE WILL BE REPLACED BY ANOTHER ELITE SERVING PUPPET??!! NOTHING CHANGES EXCEPT THE PLAYERS IN THIS TRAGIC SCRIPTED DRAMA so why fall for this overt CON time and time again, you marsh mellow brained imbeciles, try THINKING for a refreshing change?

All of it is nothing but orchestrated games designed to maintain the public's focus on anything but the critical issues that confront the world. For instance, it is now well known and PROVEN that the Bush regime lied the world into war with Iraq and Afghanistan and Obama engineered wars with Libya and Syria, which wars Trump supports though he stated he would "drain the Washington swamp" and 'partner with Russia' to put an end to these enormously costly to the nation and public, but profitable for the elite few, WARS of mass murder, pillage and destruction. Is it no longer important that CRIMINALS in high office are held to account and face punishment, justice for their

KNOWN CRIMES -- so ask your nose-ringed self, which media outlet is covering this? Not one!!!

You see, you haven't given it a thought simply because your jellied brains are led this way and that BUT NEVER to the most important critical issues that affect us all, for example, where has your quality of life and standard of living gone, imbeciles?

I can hardly blame nefarious elites for the contempt they have for you marsh-mellow brained, gullible, easily managed IDIOTS that cannot see the nose on your stupid faces - impeaching Trump makes no difference to the status quo whatsoever, but REFORMING WASHINGTON and other western political capitals and ridding ourselves of elite criminal rule CERTAINLY does!

Now try to read the REAL news behind the FAKE mainstream news for once, you may realise what a shit skid you have been most of your miserable life; however, it's never too late for JUSTICE and REAL REFORM and to re-establish REAL representative, majority rule DEMOCRACY, which no longer exists anywhere in the world.

Now try to assess what issues are most important to you and then do something about it by voting for real representatives (Tulsi Gabbard, for one) and never ever vote for bought and owned mainstream parties and their candidates. Rather than being led like bleating sheep to the slaughter while getting exploited and screwed up the arse all the while - REMEMBER that you/we REMAIN the strongest social force that exists, if we are aware of REALITY and immune to the gross fictions, distractions and distortions we are fed by the elite-owned mainstream media!

However, perhaps it's too late, as the masses seem incapable of independent, discriminative thought. Surprise me and Yourself!

Intelligent and capable, Tulsi Gabbard
